

Stonehenge was not a part of the plan as it was not in the program. Being in London, many of the students, including myself, took advantage of the opportunity to see this ancient monument since we were just a few hours away. This "extra" added to making my experience abroad unforgettable.

Study Abroad Program: Psychology at its Roots

Caitlin Baumer