

2019

EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

EVANS-STRAND PEACE AWARD

For an Eastern Michigan University student who is currently enrolled or for an EMU student who has graduated within the 12 months preceding the winter 2019 semester.

Application Deadline

November 15, 2018

The Evans-Strand Peace Award, modeled after the Nobel Peace Prize, annually recognizes an individual for significant contributions that advance the understanding and acceptance of diversity at EMU. The award recipient will have the $1000 award credited to their student account for the winter 2019 semester, and will be honored at the Martin Luther King, Jr. President's Luncheon on Monday, January 21, 2019.

REQUIREMENTS

Individual students may submit their own application or be nominated by another individual or group. In either case, all of the following are required:

- A completed Evans-Strand Peace Award application.
- An essay, maximum five typed pages, double-spaced, discussing activities or projects, including scholarly papers, which enhance understanding of and promote peace among diverse populations at EMU.
- At least two signed letters of recommendation from EMU faculty or staff.
- Currently enrolled or graduated within the 12 months preceding the semester of the award.
- In good academic and judicial standing with the University.

All application materials must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 15, 2018.
