

ELISABETH J. MORGAN & DAVID O. WOIKE ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

(awarded for 2021-2022)

The Morgan & Woike scholarship is awarded in alternating years (every other year) between the Department of World Languages and the School of Music & Dance. This scholarship is open to all music and dance majors, music and dance minors, and graduate music students in the School of Music & Dance; international students are encouraged to apply. The scholarship will be awarded to a student in good standing and who has demonstrated experience or knowledge of international history and culture.

Applicants must prepare a required essay of two pages including a personal statement that demonstrates their experience or knowledge of international history and culture and how it informs their work as a musician or dancer. Essays will be reviewed by the Elections & Awards committee.

Application

To be considered for this award a student must:

1. Submit the Morgan & Woike Application and their written statement by email to Prof. John Dorsey (jdorsey@emich.edu). Please submit both documents in one single PDF.

The deadline is Friday, April 16, 2021 by 5:00 PM (Eastern Standard Time).
