

DILLMAN SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

(awarded for 2017-2018)

A number of Dillman Scholarships in the amount of up to $2000 will be awarded each year to upper- class undergraduate students (juniors and above during the award period; current sophomores may apply), from the bequest left to Eastern Michigan University by Mrs. Jessie Dillman. Applicants must be admitted as full-time music majors to an undergraduate degree program in the School of Music and Dance both Fall and Winter semesters in which they will hold the award, enrolled in a minimum of 12 academic hours both semesters, and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher at the time of application.

The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of a high level of ability in performance or creativity based upon submitted materials. Creativity is to be interpreted broadly i.e., composition, research, teaching, potential, etc.

Application

To be considered for this award a student must:

1. Submit the Dillman application to the main office with the heading, "Dillman Application," addressed to the Elections & Awards Committee, c/o Prof. Dan Foster, or slide under his door (room 335). The deadline is Thursday, March 23, 2017, 5:00 p.m.
2. Have at least two music faculty members complete a Dillman Faculty Recommendation form for you. Faculty members should complete these forms and submit them to Dan Foster by the same deadline.
