FELLOWSHIP RECEIVED

- 2005-06 Carnegie Scholar in the Carnegie Academy for the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning. Sponsored by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, this fellowship involved three trips to the Foundation in Palo Alto, California to work with the other 20 scholars in this international group. The Carnegie Scholars each did individual projects related to the scholarship of teaching and learning. My project was entitled "Cultivating Civic Competence: Using Simulations in an Introductory American Government Class." The Carnegie Scholars also work on their campuses and nationally to enhance the visibility of and contribute to the scholarship of teaching and learning.
