

CURRICULUM VITAE

OF

MARK D. MAIRONIS
Eastern Michigan University
601T Pray-Harrold
Ypsilanti, MI 48197
(734) 487-1461

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

LECTURER

1999 to Present

Eastern Michigan University

I am a full-time lecturer in introductory classes in American Government. Subjects include fundamentals of American Government, both historical and contemporary. Additionally, I teach "The American Legal System", an introduction course in substantive law & procedure. Other responsibilities include the coaching of the University's mock trial team.

Washtenaw Community College

Spring/2000

I taught Introduction to American Government.

INSTRUCTOR

Henry Ford Community College

1982 to 1991

I conducted four credit hour introductory classes in business law. Subjects included contract law, sales under the UCC and commercial paper.

Michigan Trial Lawyers Peoples Law Court

From 1982 to 1986 I held introductory classes on employment discrimination and wrongful discharge.

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

ATTORNEY AT LAW

1987 to 1999

Sole practitioner in general practice, including civil litigation, criminal law, juvenile probate, domestic relations and real estate. Major emphasis in state court's practice.

MAGISTRATE

1987 to 1991

34th District Court

I conducted arraignments in misdemeanor and felony cases, including the setting of bonds; conducted informal hearings in traffic and small Claim cases.

ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY

1981 to 1986

General practice, including criminal defense, domestic relations, real estate, civil litigation and employment discrimination. Practice also included the operation of the firm's branch office.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

U.S. GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEE

1972 to 1981

Employed with N.O.A.A., IRS, Social Security Administration and Veterans Administration. At the V.A. I supervised and audited $1.3 million budget with the Michigan State Approval Agency.

EDUCATION

Detroit College of Law, Detroit, Michigan
Juris Doctor - June, 1980

Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan
B.A., Political Science - June, 1975

Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, Michigan
September, 1971 to August, 1972

