

Department of Political Science
2-Year Course Rotation
 (subject to revision)

Notes:

1. A writing-intensive course is required in your major. Such courses have a “W” following the number. They are never offered by this department during summer and have limits on which students can register earliest.
2. Internships (PLSC 387, 480, 486, 487, 488, 489) are offered every semester. However, you must have department permission (DP) to register.
3. Two courses (PLSC 450, 451) are offered only in the evening at the Livonia Center; several others are offered there on an occasional basis.
4. Sections of PLSC 112, 120, 202, 211, 212, and 215 are generally offered on line at least once per year, sometimes during summer.
5. Other courses numbered 300 and above are offered on an occasional basis. Topics courses (last two digits are 79) are specialized classes offered on a one-time or experimental basis.
