3. Faculty office hours – you can schedule an appointment with a faculty member during their office hours. Make sure you are logged onto your emich account when you access the calendar to schedule. Download the zoom application or join a meeting by going to: emich.zoom.us to access your appointment. During your appointment time, please open the zoom application or webpage and use the connection information to access your advising session. Here are the faculty areas of research interest.

Here are the hours and access information for each faculty member:

When you join, you’ll typically be in a waiting room. The faculty advisor will admit you at the start of your appointment. If you arrive past the start of the appointment, the faculty advisor won’t be able to extend your meeting but you can still meet for whatever time remains. Finally, you aren’t required to turn on your video though it is appreciated.
