

Presidential Scholars 2013-2014

David Bailey graduated from Divine Child High School in Canton, Michigan. David is currently undecided on his major. He aspires to a career that will encourage travel, bring him to a big city, and offer lots of contact with people.

Stephanie Bardoni graduated from Woodhaven High School, Brownstown, Michigan. Stephanie is pursuing double majors in Accounting and Public Relations. Following graduation she aspires to a career in non-profit accounting and working with charities that benefit underprivileged children.

Amanda Binz graduated from Sylvania Northview High School in Sylvania, Ohio. Mandy is pursuing a major in Biology. She aspires to a career as a Physician's Assistant with specialization in Pediatric Oncology.

Kaitlin Boroniec graduated from Trenton High School in Trenton, Michigan. She is pursuing a major in Marketing. Though Kaitlin has not decided on a particular area in marketing emphasis for her career, she would enjoy working in the area of fashion buying.

Danielle DeAngelis graduated from Trenton High School in Trenton, Michigan. Danielle is pursuing a major in Special Education/Cognitive Impairments. She aspires to a career working with autistic children, potentially in a school setting or within the area of Speech Pathology. She intends to join the Peace Corps and pursue nonprofit work. Already, Danielle has become interested in being a part of a research project focused on children with autism.

Brent Jonathan Duddles graduated from Suttons Bay Public High School, Suttons Bay, Michigan. Brent is pursuing a major in Secondary Education Mathematics. He reports that his career goal is to "be the best at whatever I set my heart on." He writes, "My goal is always I wanna win!"

Sabrina Gissendander graduated from Ypsilanti High School in Ypsilanti, Michigan. She is pursuing a degree in English Language and Literature. She aspires to become a literary publisher and hopefully one day write her own books. She also plans to continue on in school for a master's degree and eventually a doctoral degree in her fields of study.

Raquel Gonzalez graduated from Stivers School for the Arts in Dayton, Ohio. Raquel is pursuing a major in Business Management. She aspires to a career managing either a personal non-profit organization or a large corporation.

Henry Alexander Hakamaki graduated from Iron Mountain High School, Iron Mountain, Michigan. He is pursuing a major in Biology (Pre-Med) and a minor in Human Biology. Henry aspires to a career as an Infectious Disease Specialist, hopefully at the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), where he hopes to go around the world researching and treating patients with emerging infectious diseases.

Mathew Leddy graduated from Swan Valley High School in Saginaw, Michigan. He is pursuing a major in Supply Chain Management. Matthew aspires to a career in Quality Management.

Jared Mallett graduated from Washtenaw Technical Middle College in Ypsilanti, Michigan. He is pursuing a major in Biology. Though undecided about his career goals, Jared aspires to find a career he loves by the end of his college experience.

Dominic Meo graduated from Hartland High School in Hartland, Michigan. Dominic is pursuing a double major in Literature and Secondary Education. He aspires to become a professor of Literature and English.

Sarah Pfannes graduated from Canton High School in Canton, Michigan. Sarah is pursuing a major in Biology and aspires to find cures for diseases such as multiple sclerosis and polycystic kidney disease.

Samantha Stauffer graduated from Rising Sun High School in Northeast, Maryland. Samantha is pursuing a major in Exercise Science. She aspires to become a prosthetic practitioner and came to EMU primarily because of the outstanding program here.

Anna Wendt graduated from Tecumseh High School. Tecumseh, Michigan. She is pursuing a major in Information Assurance. Anna aspires to a career with the government focused on the security of weapons systems in the United States.

Kelsey Zuk graduated from Woodhaven High School in Brownstown, Michigan. Kelsey is pursuing a major in Biology. She plans to attend graduate school to study Neuroscience, eventually obtaining a Ph.D.