PAYING HOMAGE TO 'A DREAM'

From the front page of The Eastern Echo [January, 22, 1986] two days after the first annual celebration of Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday. Pictured are the EMU Gospel Choir that performed Sunday to kick off fundraising efforts for a memorial garden and bust of Dr. King to be placed on campus. Professor Ronald Woods who spoke at an evening dinner about the contributions of Dr. King to the Civil Rights movement is also pictured.
