

RESOLUTION

Recognition of the YpsiWrites Initiative

WHEREAS, Eastern Michigan University's Office of Campus and Community Writing, the Ypsilanti District Library, and 826michigan have launched the YpsiWrites initiative to support, engage, and connect writers in the Ypsilanti community; and,

WHEREAS, through creative collaboration and innovation, these organizations have enthusiastically embraced both the challenges and the possibilities of bringing the joy of writing to our community; and,

WHEREAS, people of all ages will have access to writing coaches – Eastern professors and students, local teachers, writing tutors, and trained community volunteers – who will share their passion for the written word, while helping writers refine their skills and nurturing their potential; and,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Eastern Michigan University Board of Regents hereby supports the transformational potential of the YpsiWrites initiative, the result of outstanding educational leadership in the Ypsilanti community, and looks forward to a successful partnership that will benefit generations to come.
