

President's Report
EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY
Board of Regents
Dec. 9, 2021

Madam Chair and Distinguished Members of the Board of Regents:

I begin by thanking our guest speakers for sharing their thoughts and perspectives. I particularly want to acknowledge the individuals who bravely spoke on the matter of sexual assault.

As I have stated publicly numerous times, these allegations are serious and disturb me deeply as your President.

There is no place for sexual assault on or off our campus and we will continue to do everything in our power to prevent it from happening. We support the courageous survivors. Protecting students is critical to the University's educational mission. Our staff in law enforcement, Title IX, student affairs, and elsewhere work tirelessly every day to try to create a safe and supportive environment for students, faculty, and staff.

As I have noted, the University has engaged the external firm of Cozen O'Connor, with which the University had no prior relationship, to review and audit our Title IX and related policies, procedures, and actions regarding these events. The report, when completed, will be shared with the campus community. We will undoubtedly be given recommendations about where we can do better; we will address those head-on.

Now I would like to speak to the resolution regarding student housing that was approved a short time ago.

When I arrived, EMU had been operating multi-million dollar deficits for years.

We had bled our reserves by $60 million.

My charge from the Board was to reverse that unsustainable trend while also investing in our students and our future.

Since I arrived, we have:

- Balanced the budget;
- Invested in academic facilities and new programs;
- Increased financial reserves to address serious problems identified by accreditors with financial stability;
- Launched the new $100 million GiveRise campaign with record-breaking years of fundraising; and,
- Navigated COVID-19 with among the lowest positivity rates of any Michigan public university.

However, one key area has not received significant attention: our student housing facilities.

Most are over 50 years old, and all but one are rated "poorly" in the facilities condition index.

Board/ 2

This is significant, because:

- These facilities are home for thousands of our students for eight-to-nine months of the year;
- Approximately 40% of our housing residents are students of color; and,
- Technology matters now more than ever because people must be able to learn and work from home -- our student housing needs modern technology.

After decades of neglect, it's time to act. Doing nothing, or more delays, is irresponsible and the University has rejected that approach.

In light of that, a partnership is the best approach because, simply put, we do not have the capacity to either borrow or spend the significant amount of money needed.

That is not just our assessment-- our auditors have told us that, and the HLC, despite the recent very favorable report, continued to express concern about finances.

This conversation did not come out of the blue. It has been underway for many years and has been taking place in earnest with the faculty for over three years, dating back to September 2018.

We have engaged and listened to the Faculty Senate, the University Budget Council, and student government and, in numerous instances, we have accepted their recommendations.

But that extensive input process has come to a conclusion, and the University has carefully outlined our next steps and the reasons for it.

It is time to move forward. This is an exciting and transformative opportunity.

There is much work to be done with students and others on campus who will be involved in the process to design new facilities and upgrade our existing buildings.

I want to make clear that the University has never considered privatizing student housing, while others in our region clearly have. Under this plan, Eastern is working with an experienced partner that would provide the financing for new and renovated housing facilities on campus.

We are aware that some members of the University's Faculty Senate are concerned about these plans, and we plan to continue to work to clear up the misinformation. Under this plan:

- EMU will not be selling student housing facilities;
- EMU will continue to approve any housing rate increases;
- Residence life staff, such as RAs, will remain employed by EMU; and,
- EMU will continue to manage virtually all key aspects of the student housing experience.

My sincere wish is that our community joins in the celebration of what this plan means for our students, and for the University's future.

As I conclude, it is important to highlight a few additional items:

- You may note that I am wearing a WEMU lapel pin in addition to my EMU pin. This is in recognition of Lisa Barry, the station's talented afternoon host of All Things Considered who passed away suddenly last week. My thoughts are with her at home family and her radio station family. She will be terribly missed.
- I'd like to offer a hearty congratulations on behalf of the University to sophomore Synene (Sih-NEEN) Maria Abukader, who won $100,000 for tuition at Sunday's Big Ten championship game. Synene is pursuing athletic training and is on the rowing team.
- Please join me in celebrating one of the best days of the year on campus; Commencement ceremonies take place on Sunday, Dec. 19. Congratulations to the more than 2,100 students who are eligible to graduate.
- Alumni, friends, faculty, staff and students came together for the University's annual day of giving, #GIVINGTRUEDAY. Thanks to the support of more than 800 donors, Eastern Michigan raised more than $2.2 million for a variety of scholarships, programs and services in a matter of 24 hours. It is EMU's greatest day of giving in its history.
- On Saturday, Dec. 11, I hope you can join us for George Gervin Day at the Convocation Center. Known as "The Iceman," Gervin began his road to NBA fame at Eastern Michigan. All employees are eligible for two free tickets, and additional tickets can be purchased for only $7.60. GameAbove will donate $100 to the Student Emergency Fund for every employee that attends the game. In addition, the first 1,000 students who attend will receive a $75 Visa gift card, and three students will win a $15,000 scholarship for the winter semester, thanks to GameAbove. Many other prizes are available. Please visit the EMU Athletics website for additional details.

Additional information and accomplishments are listed in the appendix to this report on the University website.

Thank you, Chair Jeffries.

James M. Smith, Ph.D.
President

Recognition
