

RESOLUTION

Recognition of Dr. Marilyn Corsianos

EMU MI-ACE Distinguished Woman in Higher Education Leadership Award Recipient for 2022

WHEREAS, Dr. Marilyn Corsianos has provided exemplary service in her career with the Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminology in the College of Arts and Sciences; and,

WHEREAS, with progressive leadership and research experience she has offered clear and consistent advocacy for women students, faculty, and staff; for women's leadership; for women's inclusion in all aspects of campus life; and for just treatment and outcomes for all in our campus community; and,

WHEREAS, she was a pioneer in advocating for and later serving as a key author and analyst of EMU's first Sexual Violence Cultures Survey and continues to serve as an advocate for programs supporting students who have experienced domestic violence, those who are attending school as parents, and most recently for women returning to our communities following incarceration; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Corsianos is truly a force for the public good, evident through her service as an expert with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, as well as her work with the Human Rights Tribunal in Ontario and the United States Department of Justice.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Eastern Michigan University Board of Regents congratulates Dr. Marilyn Corsianos for her service as an outstanding leader and role model in women's leadership, gender equity, and inclusion and hereby commends her as the EMU MI-ACE Distinguished Woman in Higher Education Leadership Award Recipient for 2022.
