NYC Graduate Tour

Bright and early on Monday, February 19th TRIO SSS students loaded a bus at 6:00am to head to Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Director of Graduate Admissions, Todd Eicker, gave TRIO students a wonderful informational presentation about graduate school, how to apply and what graduate school is like at Duquesne. After the presentation students took a tour on campus and broke up into groups to focus on what graduate school would be like for the students specific major. At the end of the long day TRIO SSS students loaded up the bus and headed to Newark, New Jersey for the night.

On Tuesday, February 20th students boarded a train and headed to New York City. Our first stop was at the Empire State Building. Although it was a cloudy day TRIO SSS Students still had a blast. Following the Empire State Building, TRIO walked to Ellen's Stardust Diner where they enjoyed the festivities of eating food and watching waiters and waitresses sing. Watching future Broadway stars sing and dance on tables was a great afternoon.

Afterwards, students broke into smaller groups for sightseeing in Times Square! To end the night TRIO SSS ate John's Pizzeria before loading up the bus and heading back to EMU.

The EMU TRIO Student Support Services (SSS) Program is funded through a five-year (2015-2020), $1.1 million grant from the U.S. Department of Education to serve 140 students each academic year.

Student Spotlight

This year, TRIO SSS students decided they wanted to venture off and start their own student organization! With the help from TRIO SSS MSW Intern, Naelah Burks, and Program Assistant, Denise Hubbard, (as their Advisor), they were able to make this happen in a few short months.
