

Emphasis

It is inappropriate to use headers to emphasize information. We also do not use italics or underlining. The only appropriate way add emphasis to content is using the bold option. It is recommended to only bold the most important content you would like to emphasize. The more you bold, the less likely users are to read your content.