

MA-German and MA-LGIT German applicants must pass a diagnostic in-house Oral Proficiency Interview at the "Advanced Low" level (speaking) or take 400-level courses (no grad. credits) until this prerequisite is fulfilled for admission to the graduate program. Students can be conditionally admitted.

Applicants must write a 500 word personal statement in German.