

LANGUAGES AND INTERNATIONAL CAREERS (LIC)

Eastern Michigan University Degree Programs In French, German and Spanish

The Language and International Careers (LIC) programs in French, German, and Spanish in the Department of World Languages prepare students for international careers in health, tourism, social work, social services, translation and interpretation, communication, government, and business. Its primary objective is the acquisition of foreign language skills, as well as cross-cultural knowledge to achieve advanced foreign language proficiency, cross-cultural competence, and effective professional communication.

Course Requirements (beyond General Education requirements that can include 100-200-level of foreign language courses)

Major: 33-36 Hours

Suggested Minors: 21 Hours

Language Courses: 24 cr. (from 300-level)	International Business, Political Science, Intern. Affairs, Economics, Journalism, Public Law & Government, Health Adm., Tourism, ROTC, Social Work (or any EMU minor program)
Elective International and Cultural Studies: 6 cr.
Internship: 3 cr. or Study Abroad (6-week Programs): 6 cr.

International careers are waiting for you in global businesses, government agencies, tourism, health and social services, translation, etc.

For more information contact Prof. Zinggeler: mzinggele@emich.edu